

GREATER MILWAUKEE FOUNDATION'S MARY L. NOHL FUND

SUITCASE EXPORT FUND FOR VISUAL ART 2011

GUIDELINES

The Suitcase Export Fund provides support for visual artists who are exporting their work for public display outside the four-county area (Milwaukee, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Washington). The Fund operates on an annual cycle, disbursing awards in response to demand until the funds for that cycle are exhausted.

In this cycle (December 2011-November 2012), there is $10,000 to disburse to visual artists. Requests will be considered in the order received. Every attempt will be made to notify applicants of a decision within four weeks. There is no application deadline, but artists must apply prior to the opening of their exhibition or screening.

The cycle has been divided into two parts to ensure that funds remain available to applicants throughout the year.

- Beginning December 1, 2011, requests for exhibitions/screenings commencing between December 2011 and November 2012 will be considered periodically until a total of $5,000 has been expended.
- Beginning June 1, 2012, requests for exhibitions/screenings commencing between June 2012 and November 2012 will be considered periodically until a total of $5,000 has been expended.

THE FUND PROVIDES SUPPORT IN THREE AREAS:

- transportation of the work (packing/shipping/insurance)
- transportation of the artist (travel only; no food or lodging)
- promotion (in those cases where the artist is required to provide their own promotion)
